Minutes

I. Call to order

Bill Damiano called the meeting to order at 12:18pm. In attendance were Wes Harrison, Elishia Hayes, Sally Hewitt, Kitty Yancheff, Deborah Haffner Hubbard, Greg Holtz, Shaun Brenneman, Lorey Keele, and Darlene Spoor.

II. Prop 47 Advisory Committee Follow-up

Competitive grant project

Update on progress with various elements of Prop 47 proposal identified in early committee meetings. Discussion re application content, viability.

Bill started the discussion by saying that he has been doing outreach with the medical community. The Board of Supervisors yesterday approved a $335,000 match for Prop 47. Bill went over the handout, Maximum Grant Award Sought, and discussed the line items. Clinicians and interns were discussed. It was brought up that the Redding Rescue Mission is willing to lodge people overnight for tattoo removal. The number of appointments for tattoo and tooth removal was discussed. The numbers, matches, and gaps in the handout were discussed. The Department of Finance grant was brought up; we are not involved in that.

III. Public Comment (as time permits)

Open discussion of the ongoing or emerging impacts on the community of Public Safety Realignment.

There was no further public comment.

IV. Determine next meeting date and take input for meeting's agenda

Bill suggested meeting again on the 4th Wednesday, which would be after the grant proposal is submitted.

VII. Adjourn

The meeting was adjourned at 12:56pm.
