Minutes

I. Call to order

Chief of Probation Shaun Brenneman called the meeting to order at 12:15pm. In attendance was: Coral Sanders from Probation, Michelle Tucker from Probation, Ron Bates with the Yurok Tribal Court, Justin Nadigoo with Probation, Arlette Large with Humboldt Recovery Center, and District Supervisor Steve Madrone.

II. Report out on CCP Executive Committee meeting 02/17/2021

Review agenda items covered, discussions held and actions taken.

Chief Brenneman provided a summary of the February CCP Executive Committee meeting:

- Reviewed the CCP trust: projected revenues decreases were not as expected.
- Expenditures still exceed the on-going revenue sources.
- Probation will be shifting CCP/Realignment funds to DHHS for a match to sustain Drug Medi-Cal services.

III. Update on CCP plan implementation

Brief review current status of CCRC staffing and Community Corrections

Partnership plan program service elements and other executive-body approved actions.

Ron Bates/Yurok Tribal Wellness Court: Just began with the tribal wellness court two months ago and getting acquainted with their processes and how to better assist.

Arlette Large/Humboldt Recovery Center: Drug Medi-Cal roll out is going well and is now a smooth transition for clients. Provided a brief overview of the Drug Medi-Cal referral screening process.

Coral Sanders/Probation: Mental Health staff positions at CCRC that were once vacant are now being filled. Weekly meetings are held with both Probation and DHHS staff are CCRC.

Steve Madrone/BOS: Supervisor Madrone will be working with county departments to develop a plan to seek funding from a new billion-dollar funding program within the state of California that would provide work experience for those that need it. A brief report out on the county's budget was provided.

IV. Public Comment (as time permits)

Open discussion of the ongoing or emerging impacts on the community of Public Safety Realignment.

V. Take input for next month's agenda

Please email Chief Brenneman if you have any agenda items for next month's meeting.

VI. Adjourn

The meeting was adjourned at 12:45pm.
