Minutes

I. Call to order

Interim Chief Probation Officer Coral Sanders called the meeting to order at 12:16pm. In attendance was the Honorable Judge Greg Elvine-Kreis, Probation Division Director Darren Ghisetti, Probation Supervisor Justin Nadigoo, Probation Administrative Services Officers Lydia Thrash and Lauren Lund, District Attorney Stacey Eads, and Glen Hayl from Open Door.

II. Report out on CCP Executive Committee meeting 03/15/2023

- Probation Chief Shaun Brenneman retired on April 14th, 2023.
- The potential County purchase of Probation’s 404 H street building in Eureka would no longer be pursued.

III. Update on CCP plan implementation

Brief review current status of CCRC staffing and Community Corrections Partnership plan program service elements and other executive-body approved actions.

Justin Nadigoo provided a brief update on CCRC staffing levels. Staff levels are comfortable at the moment. They are increasing their field activities now that the jail has more availability to take in a higher volume of offenders.

IV. Public Comment (as time permits)

Open discussion of the ongoing or emerging impacts on the community of Public Safety Realignment.

Glen Hayl reported that Open Door is looking into a youth MAT (medicated assisted treatment), as there is currently no developed program for it.

V. Take input for next month’s agenda
