Minutes

I. Call to order

Chief Probation Officer Shaun Brenneman called the meeting to order at 12:15pm. In attendance were: Darren Ghisetti, Lynn Kerman, Wes Harrison, Coral Sanders, Michelle Tucker, and Jason Mills.

II. Report out on CCP Executive Committee meeting 03/20/2019

Review agenda items covered, discussions held and actions taken.

Coral Sanders reported out on the Executive Committee meeting:

- Arcata Police Department received funding to send 25 female law enforcement officers from various local agencies to a Women In Law Enforcement conference.
- An overview of where the current AB109 trust budget was provided.

III. Update on CCP plan implementation

Brief review current status of CCRC staffing and Community Corrections

Partnership plan program service elements and other executive-body approved actions.

- Wes Harrison/Crossroads: Gave update on current status of Drug Medi-Cal progress.
- Lynn Kerman/RCAA: In the processing of interviewing for 4th case manager position. The 4th case manager's time will be split in half between two treatment programs. The current 3 case managers are doing well. Jason Mills, current case manager, provided an update on the positive progress that was being made with clients.
- Darren Ghisetti/Probation: Starting in April, Probation will be working with Arcata House on a pilot program that will provide a 5-bedroom house in Arcata, specifically for PRCS offenders. Eligible candidates will be those on PRCS who are set to be released from prison and need housing. The house will offer case management services and will serve as a starting point to get PRCS offenders established with jobs and more permanent housing, as well as critical services they may need.

IV. Public Comment (as time permits)

Open discussion of the ongoing or emerging impacts on the community of Public Safety Realignment.

A discussion took place in regard to available treatment funding in the AB109 trust, as well as other funding sources treatment programs can utilize.

V. Take input for next month's agenda

If you would like to add an agenda item for next month's meeting, please contact Shaun Brenneman.

VI. Adjourn

The meeting was adjourned at 12:47pm.
