Minutes

I. Call to order

Chief Brenneman called the meeting to order at 12:15pm. In attendance was: Coral Sanders, Darren Ghisetti, Michelle Tucker, and Lynn Kerman.

II. Report out on CCP Executive Committee meeting 05/15/2019

Review agenda items covered, discussions held and actions taken.

Supervising Probation Officer Darren Ghisetti reported out on the Executive Committee meeting:

- Amendment to the CCP plan for the removal of a .5 FTE Student Service Specialist. Cr has obtained an alternate funding source for the position and no longer needs county funds. The item was approved.
- Amendment to the CCP plan for the expansion of the use of contract services for inmates being released from jail. This amendment would allow for inmates to also be released into transitional housing along with treatment programs. The item was approved.

III. Update on CCP plan implementation

Brief review current status of CCRC staffing and Community Corrections Partnership plan program service elements and other executive-body approved actions.

- Darren Ghisetti/Probation: 1 current vacancy at CCRC.
- Lynn Kerman/RCAA: There are currently 3 full-time case managers and 2 part-time case managers. All case manager positions are filled. There are several community trainings the case managers will be attending in the future.

IV. Public Comment (as time permits)

Open discussion of the ongoing or emerging impacts on the community of Public Safety Realignment.
