Poll 6: Do you have suggestions for additional Humboldt County training or resources regarding accessory dwelling units? Or improvements to existing resources? Please describe. (n=18, open-ended)

- “Seemed appropriate in length and concise enough.”
- “Organize a community event where the focus is on mutual aid so that those who have built ADU or JADUs can help each other out and let the planners act as mentors. Get much more done.”
- “Continue working with the private folks and you are doing great. Thank you.”
- “You can try having “rooms” where people can go that have specific types of questions. I felt a little shortchanged in asking what I wanted to know. But thank you for putting this together.”
- “No suggestions. Thank you for some good information.”
- “More info on building permit process. Permitting ADU with planning dept.”
- “No, thank you.”
- “Step by step detailed process starting from site evaluation to permitting through design and then construction. Questions to ask, topics to consider, etc.”
• “Your upcoming website seems perfect.”
• “Grants and loan information is important for low-income individuals… more of that. Thank you.”
• “Pictures of ADUs in place now. Cost of infrastructure. Composting toilet info.”
• “Please provide more frequent Humboldt County Housing Trainings in ALL housing areas. Knowledge is power and housing has so many key components and not all the information is retained in one training financing is likely to be an important aspect of any ADU program.”
• “Any additional resources or zoom meetings is always great. And glad I was able to attend.”
• “Realtime access to PDF.”
• “Do you have to have a licensed contractor build it.”
• “You did a great job. Thanks.”
• “I’m involved in a new org, called Indigenous Habitat Institute that will teach builders and communities about how to build with hemp and lime. Let me know if anyone is interested! arush5ster@gmail.com.”
