

How to Compare Health Plans

- Log in or create a login: <https://my.calpers.ca.gov/>
- Click on the Health link in the ribbon

- Then, click on Search Health Plans and accept the Terms of Use

- If information does not populate, enter your zip code, 2022 Plan Year, select Public Agency or School, Basic Plans, how many people you will cover, and select None of these for Associate Type

The screenshot shows the 'myCalPERS' website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'myCalPERS' on the left and 'My Account' and 'Messages' on the right. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with 'Home', 'Retirement', 'Health', 'Statements', and 'Education'. The main content area is titled 'Search Criteria' and contains several sections:

- Zip Code (required): A text input field containing '95540'. A green arrow points to this field.
- Postal Code Outside of U.S.: A checkbox that is unchecked.
- Plan Year: A dropdown menu showing '2022'.
- Member Type (required): Radio buttons for 'State or CSU' (unchecked), 'Public Agency or School' (checked), and 'Other' (unchecked). A green arrow points to the 'Public Agency or School' option.
- Health Coverage Type (required): Radio buttons for 'Basic Plans' (checked), 'Medicare Plans' (unchecked), and 'Combination Plans' (unchecked). A green arrow points to the 'Basic Plans' option.
- Basic Plans (required): Radio buttons for 'You only (Basic)' (checked), 'You plus one dependent (Basic)' (unchecked), and 'You plus family (Basic)' (unchecked). A green arrow points to the 'You only (Basic)' option.
- Association Type: Radio buttons for 'Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC)' (unchecked) and 'None of these' (checked). A green arrow points to the 'None of these' option.
- Search Buttons: A large green arrow points to the 'Search for Health Plans' button, and another green arrow points to the 'Cancel' link.

- At this point, you can choose to include to search for your doctor and continue

- A '< Back' link.
- A paragraph: 'We're only able to search for doctors in basic health plans. If you want to verify your doctor is included in your Medicare plan, contact the health plan directly.'
- Do you want to include your doctor? (required): Radio buttons for 'Yes' (unchecked) and 'No' (checked).
- Search Buttons: A green arrow points to the 'Continue' button, and another green arrow points to the 'Cancel' link.
- Terms of Use: A small text block at the bottom stating: 'Results are based on your geographic service area and are limited to doctors located in California who are associated with CalPERS Basic health plans. Medicare members should contact the health plans directly for doctor availability. Searching for your doctor doesn't automatically assign you to that doctor. Information is subject to change. Before making any changes, verify with the health plan that your selected doctor is available.'

- Plans available in your zip code will populate. Choose up to three you are interested in to compare. Here's an example:
