

From: CEQAResponses
To: Elizabeth Burks
Cc: Ford, John; Werner, Steve; Shortridge, Tricia; Humboldt Wind
Subject: FW: I support it
Date: Wednesday, April 17, 2019 4:37:54 PM

---

From: seahunter31415@gmail.com <seahunter31415@gmail.com>
Sent: Wednesday, April 17, 2019 3:20 PM
To: CEQAResponses <CEQAResponses@co.humboldt.ca.us>
Subject: I support it

My wife and I have stood at the foot of a large multi-megawatt machine in eastern Washington. I was surprised at how slowly the blades were turning compared to the wind turbine that powered our remote home for 40 years. The large turbine made a quiet swishing noise as a blade passed overhead and the blades were clearly visible to passing birds.

I2-1