Seven New Cases Reported Today

The total number of Humboldt County residents who have tested positive for COVID-19 now stands at 586, after seven new cases were reported today.

Humboldt County Health Officer Dr. Teresa Frankovich today issued a revised Order of the Health Officer to reflect the state's four-tier "Blueprint for a Safer Economy." To read the order in full, visit humboldt.gov/DocumentCenter/View/90467.

Due to Election Day, the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) has delayed the weekly tier assignment update until Wednesday, Nov. 4. Humboldt County's tier placement will be updated on the Data Dashboard following CDPH's announcement.

For the most recent COVID-19 information, visit cdc.gov or cdph.ca.gov. Local information is available at humboldt.gov or during business hours by contacting covidinfo@co.humboldt.ca.us or calling 707-441-5000.
